Thank You

Not Sure What to Donate?

Share some of yourself. Items and events purchased at auctions have helped our church family know each other better, have fun and support our church.

What are you good at?

What do you like to do?

What skills or topics can you teach or share with others?

Some popular items at past auctions:

- ★ ethnic dinners, vegetarian/vegan meals, parties, teas
- ★ musical performances, coffee houses, story-telling
- ★ nature hikes, golf outings
- ★ guided tours of historic sites, public gardens, museums
- ★ classes: past classes have included beer-making, flower-arranging, qi gong, yoga, bread making, dancing, watercolor painting, wreath-making, bead-work, egg rolls, knitting
- ★ services: such as handyman, painting, babysitting, gardening, photography
- ★ use of vacation homes and time-shares
- ★ game nights, movie nights
- ★ handmade afghans, quilts, hand-knitted/crocheted socks and scarves (no clothing, other than hand-made items)
- ★ handmade pottery, jewelry, holiday ornaments
- ★ homemade candy, cakes, cookies, catered meals
- ★ specialty gift baskets, such as toiletries, pet treats, books, local foods, healthy foods, wine, green products
- ★ toys & children's books new or gently used items
- ★ gift certificates for area businesses
- ★ household items (smaller items—like kitchen gadgets or dishes rather than furniture!)
- ★ tickets to concerts, plays, sports events
- ★ tools (small power and hand tools, tool chests)
- ★ games & puzzles (gently used items accepted if all pieces are included)
- ★ original art ??? (Usually does not sell for what it may be worth. It all depends on who attends the auction. You need at least 2 people with similar tastes to compete for it.)
- ★ books ??? Expensive specialty books—coffee table books, etc.— seldom bring their price. Like art, it depends on who attends the auction. Small bundles, especially of genre books (mysteries, etc.), do sell but usually for small amounts.
